

Nominations for a new slate of leadership to take office in 2025 have been proposed by the AAE, the Foundation for Endodontology and ABE Nominating Committees. AAE Nominating Committee members, Alan S. Law, chair, Stefan I. Zweig, past president, Craig S. Hirschberg, immediate past president, together with District Directors Lorel E. Burns and Bryan F. Mansour, met to recommend new Officers for the AAE and Trustees for the Foundation for Endodontology. The ABE Board of Directors and Foundation for Endodontology Board of Trustees also met to recommend new leadership for their respective organizations. Nominees for terms beginning in 2025 are listed below.

The 2025 General Assembly will vote to approve nominees for AAE Officers and Directors, Foundation Trustees and Public Sector Representatives, and ABE Directors. Officers of the Foundation for Endodontology and American Board of Endodontics are elected by their respective Boards. Additional nominations for AAE Officers, Foundation for Endodontology Trustees and Public Sector Representatives, or ABE Directors may be made in writing by Active, Educator and Life members. Such nominations must be accompanied by a petition that includes the printed names and signatures of 50 voting members, and must be received by AAE Secretary, Bradley H. Gettleman, care of AAE Headquarters, no later than March 5, 2025.
